14	Relaxing Weekend on Fox Island	Value $497
-----------	---------------------------------------	--------------------

2 nights accommodation at this enchanting water front home that was originally a school house in the early 1900's. You'll enjoy the large yard with its horseshoe pit, volleyball/badminton net, and hammock strung between two huge cedar trees. But mostly, you'll fall in love with the 180 degree view of the protected inlet -- most mornings you'll awake to a glassy reflection of the mountains in the water. Bring your boat or rent one in Gig Harbor as the property has a shared dock available. Go waterskiing, wakeboarding, or go for an evening cruise to see the sea lions, otters, and porpoises. Of course, you can also just kick back on the deck and see osprey, bald eagles, herons, deer, squirrels, and many other species native to the Pacific Northwest. Sleeps 6 (Master with queen, bedroom with 2 twins, and sleeping porch with a bunkbed.)
